

WELCOME TO IMINTJI CAMPGROUND

The Imintji (Ngarinyin) people welcome you to Imintji Campground, a sheltered location at the foot of the spectacular King Leopold range. This shady wilderness camp ground has wonderful views of the escarpment and is well situated to explore nearby attractions like Bell Gorge, Tunnel Creek, Windjana Gorge and the surrounding country.

COMMUNITY STORE AND ART CENTRE

The Imintji Community Store is open daily and supplies diesel, basic groceries, snacks, coffee and cold drinks. We invite you to visit our new Art Centre which showcases artworks by local artists.

IMINTJI MEANS
A PLACE
TO SIT DOWN
IN NGARINYIN LANGUAGE.

Once an important rest point for bullock drivers on the Gibb River Road, Imintji is once again a welcome stop-over for Kimberley travellers. The new campgrounds offer modern amenities and a great base from which to explore some of the Kimberley's most spectacular locations.
